

David Reynolds

Hospice Nurse

Portland, OR
davidr@example.com
(555) 123-6789

Compassionate hospice nurse focused on end-of-life care and patient comfort

Experienced hospice nurse with seven years of experience providing palliative care, pain management, and emotional support to terminally ill patients and their families.

Key Skills

End-of-life pain management

Palliative and hospice care coordination

Emotional and spiritual support

Symptom management and comfort care

Family education and counseling

Professional Experience

Hospice Registered Nurse

Portland Hospice Services | Portland, OR | June 2018 - Present

- Provide palliative care and pain management for an average of 15 terminally ill patients per week
- Educate families on symptom management and emotional coping strategies
- Coordinate with interdisciplinary teams, including social workers and chaplains, to ensure holistic patient care

Palliative Care Nurse

Oregon Medical Center | Portland, OR | August 2016 - May 2018

- Assisted in developing individualized care plans for patients with chronic illnesses
- Conducted family meetings to provide emotional support and discuss care options
- Trained new hospice nurses on best practices for end-of-life care

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

Oregon Health & Science University | May 2016

Certifications

- Registered Nurse (RN), Oregon State Board of Nursing
- Certified Hospice and Palliative Nurse (CHPN)