

Sarah Bennett

Endocrinology Medical Assistant

Denver, CO | (123) 333-4444
email@example.com
LinkedIn

Endocrinology medical assistant with five years of experience assisting in diabetes management, hormone therapy, and metabolic disorder treatments. Skilled in patient education, diagnostic testing, and EHR documentation.

Professional Experience

- August 2018
- Present

Endocrinology medical assistant
Rocky Mountain Endocrinology, Denver, CO
 - Assist endocrinologists with thyroid ultrasounds, glucose tolerance tests, and hormone injections
 - Educate patients on diabetes management, leading to a 25% increase in patient compliance
 - Monitor blood glucose levels and document trends in EHR systems
 - Coordinate medication refills and patient follow-ups, improving appointment efficiency by 30%
- January 2017
- July 2018

Medical assistant intern
Denver Diabetes Center, Denver, CO
 - Assisted with insulin injection training for patients and families
 - Helped with lab work and diagnostic testing for metabolic disorders
 - Provided administrative support, scheduling over 200 patient appointments per month

Education

Associate of Applied Science in Medical Assisting
University of Colorado, Denver, CO

Key Skills

Patient intake and examination assistance		Thyroid function tests and hormone therapy support
EHR documentation and patient history intake		Administering injections (insulin, hormone therapy)
Nutrition counseling for endocrine disorders

Certifications

- Certified Medical Assistant (CMA),
AAMA
- Certified Diabetes Care and Education Specialist (CDCES)