

Kaley Adamson

Public Health Social Worker

City, ST
email@example.com
(123) 456-7890
LinkedIn URL

Public health social worker focused on community wellness and health advocacy

Experienced social worker with a background in public health initiatives, disease prevention programs, and community outreach. Passionate about addressing health disparities and improving community well-being.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- June 2019 - Present

Public health social worker | City Health Department

San Diego, CA

 - Develop and implement public health programs to address social determinants of health
 - Advocate for policies that improve access to health care for underserved populations
- August 2016 - May 2019

Health program coordinator | Community Wellness Initiative

San Diego, CA

 - Designed and managed health programs focusing on nutrition, mental health, and disease prevention
 - Built partnerships with local organizations to expand community resources

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Public Health Social Worker | 2017

KEY SKILLS

- Community health education
- Policy advocacy
- Program development
- Health disparities research
- Public health outreach

EDUCATION

Master of Social Work (MSW) |
University of California, San
Diego | May 2016