

Reese King

Emergency Department Tech-To-RN Transition

Former ER Tech turned RN with deep frontline experience

Registered Nurse who transitioned from ER technician to RN, bringing 10+ years of combined emergency department experience. Offers practical insight into workflows, patient transport, and clinical care delivery.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

 (000) 000-0000

 email@email.com

 Kansas City, MO

KEY SKILLS

- Patient transport and triage
- Wound care
- EHR documentation
- Catheterization and IV insertion
- Interdisciplinary teamwork
- Fast-paced clinical adaptability
- Emergency medical equipment
- Patient mobility assistance

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

June 2021 - Present

Registered Nurse – ER, Truman Medical Centers, Kansas City, MO

- Provide direct emergency care to 20 to 25 patients per shift in a Level I trauma center
- Recognized for seamless transition from tech to RN with strong clinical skills
- Mentor for other techs pursuing nursing degrees

May 2013 - May 2021

Emergency Department Technician, Truman Medical Centers, Kansas City, MO

- Supported nurses and physicians with patient mobility, vitals, and basic wound care
- Maintained equipment, transported patients, and documented intake notes
- Promoted collaborative care during high-volume hours

EDUCATION

Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN)

Metropolitan Community College, Kansas City, MO | 2021

CERTIFICATIONS

- Registered Nurse (RN) – Missouri
- Basic Life Support (BLS)
- Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS)